mocharyd asked: block answer
Okay, I have to say this. Doctor, are you going to treat Twilight right? Yes, I know we're not suppose to talk about Derpy but what you did to her was awful and the last thing I want is for Twilight to end up like her. So are you going to take care of her?
You forget there's a BIG difference between Derpy and Twilight.
Unlike that dunce, I don't despise Twilight.

Now that you got that "business" out of the way, are you going to find a way to reverse the effects of the poison joke?

hea Twilight has a book on curing the effects of Poison Joke You should ask her for it And maybe a little mare fun on the side

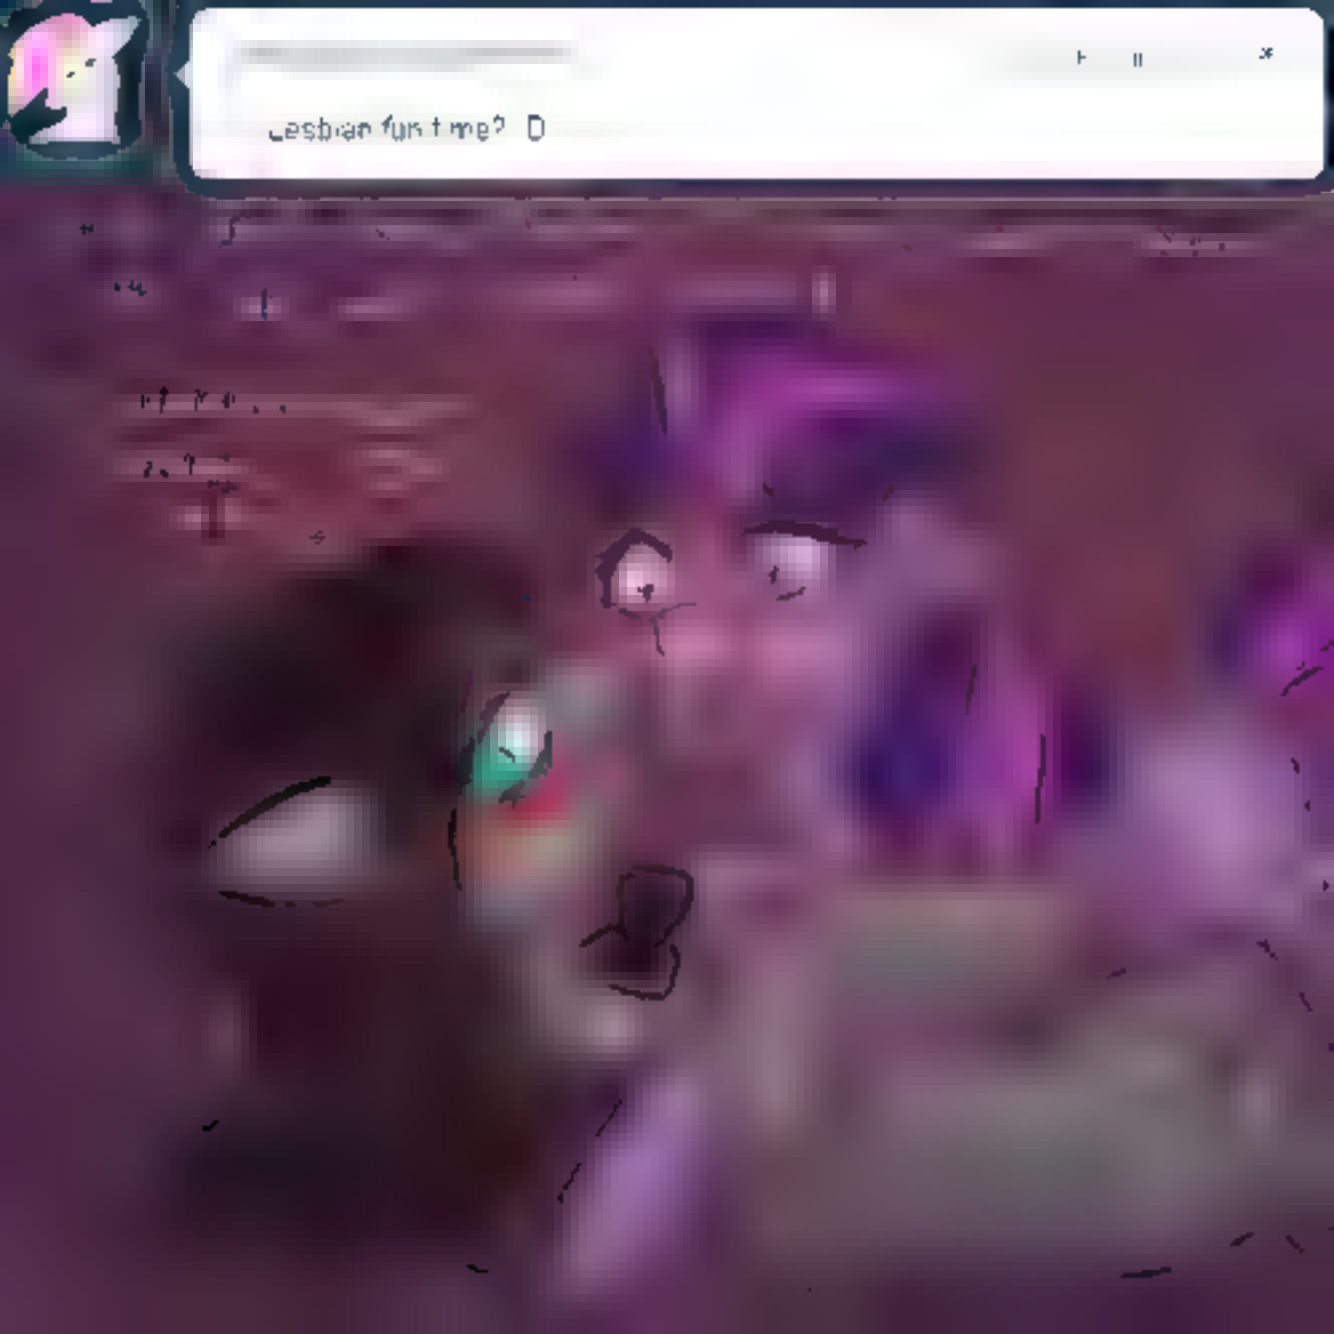
Hrm... wonder what marshmallow would make of you right now

Well... you're a mare now. Maybe you're looking for something a bit beyond the physical? An emotional connection, as it were. In short, Twilight?



Lesbian fun time? D

Now, let's see if you'll finish this time, Doctor.

You could use Twilight's spell to turn back into a colt!
Wait... If Twilight has a spell to turn herself into a ma e does n't that mean she could turn you back into a ma e?
